THE CENTRAL TEXAS I-10 COMMUNITY ALLIANCE COMMITTEE PREFERENCE FORM

A defining characteristic of the Central Texas I-10 Community Alliance is how our members support each other; the organization's effectiveness is determined in large part by the resources each community brings to the table. We know we have some very talented folks in our communities and would love to have you be a part of our success. Please take just a moment to review the following list of committees and indicate which committee most appeals to your talents and interests. The Committee Chair will contact you upon receipt of your selection(s).

Thank you for your past and future support.

Economic Development Committee – If you are interested in helping to improve the economy through business retention and attraction, this is the place for you! The committee is responsible for...

Membership Committee – If you enjoy sharing ideas and mentoring others, perhaps membership is where you belong! This committee ...

Tourism Committee - If you geek out when you see a travel guide and can't wait to tell everyone you know about the next cool event happening in your neck of the woods, then maybe the Tourism Committee is your thing... - The Tourism group ...
